

Flask web server connects postgresql database

Security

Provide URL to validate username and password and return access token

Protect API URL using access token.

Functionality of web server

Login validation API

API – POST request to store original image, annotated image, prediction results in text, deviceID, timestamp, position_in_field